The NRCS report was given by Acting District Conservationist Sarah James. The remaining EQIP deadlines have been extended. The new deadline for EQIP ranking is April 26th, 2021 and we will be finished obligating contracts by July 2, 2021. As I am sure you have heard, NRCS has restructured and under this restructuring, general EQIP funds are competitive throughout the Team 3 boundary that includes Kingman's service area and the Tonto NRCD boundary. Across the team, we have 42 EQIP applications and of that 25 fall within Chino Winds or Triangle Districts with an initial general EQIP allocation of about $909,442. This is by no means the only source of funds coming into Prescott Valley's original service area, though. There is an Urban conservation program that is available to applications within Chino Valley and Prescott Valley with a focus on cropland. There is also a WaterSmart program with $1,000,000 to spend towards reducing sediment transport and encouraging aquifer recharge. There is also the Joint Chiefs funds of $750,000. There is also a small amount of previous RCPP funds at $42,000 that can be spent this year. All of this amounts to about $2.7M possible to spent in the team boundary with roughly $1.7M residing Prescott Valley's old service area. In addition to EQIP, Conservation Stewardship Program (CSP) deadlines have been announced. The CSP application deadline is April 5th, 2021 and the eligibility deadline is April 30th, 2021. All CSP contracts will be obligated by August 20, 2021. Currently, there are only 7 CSP applications in throughout the
